Rise in import of seconds and defective steel items

73. SHRI GURUDAS DAS GUPTA:
SHRI J. CHITHARANJAN:

Will the Minister of STEEL be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there has been alarming rise in the import of seconds and defective steel items and tin plates into the country which are banned for sale in the Western countries;

(b) whether Government's decision to reduce the floor price for the import of these items has further aggravated the situation; and

(c) if so, the details thereof and Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF STEEL (SHRI DILIP RAY): (a) to (c) There has been increase in the import of seconds and defectives steel items and tin plates in the past two-three years. As per available information, sale of these items in some European countries is not banned, however their use in packaging of food items is prohibited. In order to restrict the imports of second/defective steel items and Tin plates the Government has fixed minimum floor prices in December, 1998. The floor prices have been revised with effect from November, 1999 on the basis of the average export prices of these items from non-dumping sources. Thus domestic steel producers are unlikely to be adversely affected.
